

Chapter 3: The American Colonies Take Shape

Section 4: Wars of Empire

Key Terms

French and Indian War

Pontiac's Rebellion

Proclamation of 1763

Albany Plan of Union

Key People

George Washington

Edward Braddock

General Louis-Joseph Montcalm

Key Ideas

These four countries often used armed conflict to settle economic competition

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

What was France's Greatest advantage in North America?

Why did Native Americans bother to deal with French and British?

Why did they strive to keep the balance of power between the 2 empires?

How did the British treat Native Americans?

What was Britain's greatest advantage in North America?

How did the French interact with the Native Americans?

What caused the French and Indian War in 1754?

1. _____
 - a. _____
2. _____

Claims:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Why did France establish a new fort in Western PA?

What was the first battle of the French and Indian War that was initially successful but eventually lost by George Washington?

What did George Washington do after he resigned his commission in 1774?

What happened to Braddock on his expedition?

Who led the retreat on Braddock's expedition?

How did Britain turn the tide of the War in 1758-1759?

What was captured in 1760, effectively ending the French and Indian War?

What Treaty ended the French and Indian War?

What did the British gain?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

After the war what was revealed?

What did the colonists want but do not want to pay for?

What did the colonists value?

- 1.
- 2.

Who drafted the Albany Plan of Union?

What was its main argument?